Dr. Parmeshwar Ojha
Secretary, Basara Educational And Welfare
Society

"Witnessing the impact of our health camp has been incredibly rewarding. The smiles on the faces of those who received medical attention and the gratitude expressed by the community are a testament to the power of compassion and service. We are committed to continuing our efforts to improve the health and well-being of those in need."

Basic Health Checkup Camps:

Recognizing the importance of early disease detection, Basara Educational and Welfare Society conducted seven comprehensive health checkups for diabetes and high blood pressure in Muzaffarpur, East & West Champaran, and Vaishali districts. A total of 1662 individuals benefited from these free checkups. Early identification of 162 diabetic and 217 high BP individuals with health concerns enabled timely medical intervention. 1285 other disease patients were also taking benefit of the health camp. Total number of drugs distributed to these patients were 1228. Collaborations with local healthcare providers ensured the quality of services.

A poor farmer lady with 4 children after receiving Shawls and Blankets during a blanket donation camp

"These shawls and blankets are like warm hugs from the sky. They have brought warmth to our bodies and hope to our hearts. Now, my children will not have to shiver through the night. I'm so grateful to the Basara Educational and Welfare Society for their kindness."

Blanket Donation Camps:

To address the challenges faced by the underprivileged during winter, Basara Educational and Welfare Society organized 6 blanket, saree, shawl and chadar donation camps at 6 different locations. These camps provided essential warmth and dignity to 1100 beneficiaries, including women, children, and elderly individuals. Partnerships with local government administration were instrumental in the success of these initiatives
